Full Length Biography

"Jeff unleashes magic. His telling takes us back to our childhood, makes us laugh at our adulthood and contemplate our future. Don't miss an opportunity to hear him. He's one of the greatest!"
Sharon Fisher, Program Director, Howell Opera House

Jeff's gift for "keeping it real" highlights the truths of human nature. His stories are a collaborative project where we are drawn into Jeff's masterful creation. Listeners leave feeling as though they've lived his tale.

Storytelling began around the campfire with Jeff's favorite tale, The Blue Ape, and he soon became renowned for his scary storytelling genius. Before long, Jeff was writing and performing not just scary tales but wild, funny, and heartwarming stories as well. As a father, a dreamer, and an average guy, Jeff sometimes sees things through the eyes of a 13-year- old boy. He finds humor in everyday life and crafts stories that evoke everything from laughter to tears, captivating listeners of all ages. His ability to draw listeners into his world makes his performances both compelling and memorable.
